Roadhouse & Rose is proud to be Newmarket's only locally owned and operated funeral home. Family owned since its establishment in 1842, we also have the distinction of being Newmarket's oldest business. We specialize in creating a unique service custom tailored to celebrate the life of the deceased. Offering a full range of burial and cremation services, Roadhouse and Rose specializes not only in sensitive at-need arrangements, but also comprehensive pre-arranged services as well as unique aftercare for the family through our Genesis program.

Since 1973, the Lake Simcoe Conservation Foundation has improved our quality of life through support for the Lake Simcoe Region Conservation Authority, to enrich the natural values of the Lake Simcoe watershed and encourage people to enjoy, and to learn from, the outdoors.

The Lake Simcoe Conservation Foundation is a registered charity (BN 11900 3317 RR0001).

Memorial Grove at Bailey Ecological Park

In Partnership With

Lake Simcoe
Conservation
Foundation

Lake Simcoe
Region
Conservation
Authority

Roadhouse and Rose Funeral Home, the Lake Simcoe Region Conservation Authority and the Lake Simcoe Conservation Foundation established a partnership in 2010 which reflects our shared commitment to our local environment. We will work together to respect and support a healthy ecosystem.

For each family Roadhouse and Rose Funeral Home serves, we will make a contribution to the Lake Simcoe Conservation Foundation's Watershed for Life campaign which supports local reforestation projects of the LSRCA that help keep our land greener and our air and water cleaner.

As part of the partnership, we have established the Roadhouse and Rose Memorial Grove at LSRCA's Bailey Ecological Park in Newmarket. Every year we will honour all the families we serve with a memorial service that includes the planting of a tree to celebrate the memory of our loved ones. Our first tree will be planted in Spring 2011.

If you would like to make a personal donation to the Watershed for Life campaign please refer to our separate contribution cards or contact Lake Simcoe Conservation Foundation directly.

Bailey Ecological Park

Centrally located in the Town of Newmarket, Bailey Ecological Park is a valuable bird and animal sanctuary. The Nokiidaa/Tom Taylor trail goes through Bailey Ecological Park and follows the East Holland River. Bailey Ecological Park provides opportunities to observe wildlife in the river and in adjacent wetlands.
